

I am very much opposed to putting tolls at the borders of CT. In addition to being an economic hardship to many CT residents, the cars backed up because of the tolls would create pollution and add to commute time. It would also put more traffic on local streets and add hazards that increased traffic causes.

Michael Steir
Danbury, CT

Sent from my iPad